

Supporting Community Organisations to be at their best

Are you over sending staff to courses that aren't specific enough or don't really meet your needs?

Would you prefer to be able to tailor training to meet your requirements without too much cost?

Tailored Training and Curriculum Development for the Health and Community Services Sector

Tuned In Consulting has a proven track record developing short and longer training programs, including blended and e-learning for both large organisations such as NSW Health, Department of Family and Community Services (NSW) and some UK Local Authorities, through to tailored training for small specialist non government agencies. We can develop accredited training, mapped to National (VETAB) Competencies, short courses, and also offer supported workplace implementation strategies to ensure learning is translated through practical application. The options are as diverse as your needs and can be based on existing programs or specifically tailored.

We offer training and curriculum development in:

- People Management Skills
- Supervision and Team Dynamics for Managers and staff
- Introductory and Specialist Trauma and Neglect, Child Protection and Domestic Violence interventions
- Training for Foster Carers in the above
- Youth support work, including Adolescent Mental Health
- Vicarious Trauma and Vicarious Resilience
- Case Management and Family Support
- Infant Observation and Mental Health (Attachment based Tavistock Model)
- Accidental Counselor training for Admin and Support staff
